Dear Mr Landaus

I write in reply to your recent letters in which you seek a response to correspondence forwarded by you in October 1999 concerning alleged breaches of the Mining Act 1971.

I regret to advise that your earlier correspondence on this matter can not now be located. There have been staff movements in this office since the change of government in November 1999 and regrettably Anne McKay is no longer with us to inform efforts to locate your correspondence. It would therefore be appreciated if you could forward to the Office of the Commissioner of Police [Attention: Ministerial Services Section], a copy of that earlier correspondence so that the issues you raised could be given consideration.

Yours sincerely

Graham Thomas
Superintendent
Ministerial Adviser
