Dear Sir,

Having great respect for you as one of New Zealand's best lawyers and it seems, a man with a good heart, I herein approach you on a matter that has been with me since 1990.

It involves the Mining Acts in relation to The Ngai Tahu (Pounamu Vesting) Act 1997 and my related mining privileges.

I have had no success over the years in coming to some compensation agreement, or the like, with the Crown Minerals, Ministry of Economic Development.

Hence my approach to you to ascertain whether or not you could help me.

I have put my entire case up on the internet at <http://www.digita.co.nz/greenstone.html>

I could also send you a local version on USB flash-drive or disk for your convenience.

As you may well imagine, I do not have the funds now to bring this matter to the Court.

When I started out back in the late 1970's, I did.

It was then my late father in law, Geoges Montagnat, Nickel Miner from New Caledonia that helped me get established, working out of Queenstown, then Wanaka and Haast.

I would really like to have the matter settled for his and his family sake too.

If you are interested in helping me at all, all I can really offer at this stage, is a percentage of any financial settlement the Crown may offer or we may agree on.

This matter would be more than a challenge to any lawyer but if you could help me in any way, I would be much appreciative.

I mined, manufactured and supplied the tiles for the Wiaouru Army Museum, "Tears on Greenstone" War Memorial. Commemorating all New Zealand war dead.

With respect, just another reason why I would like this matter resolved before I end up joining them, What with all the stress this matter has caused me.

I am sixty four years old now.

If you cannot help me, I'm proposing to take my story to the news media worldwide and also write to Prince Charles on this matter concerning the alleged deprivation of my statutory rights.

With respect, it has been the arrogance of our successive Governments on the matter that has been very hard to accept.

I'm sure my information's at the above address will clarify that.

Hoping you may be of assistance to me.

Thank you respectfully,

Yours sincerely
